2027 • CLUSTER 6

RESEARCH & INNOVATION PARTNERSHIP OPPORTUNITY

GREEN-DIGILIVESTOCK

Climate-smart livestock, digital innovation and green vocational capacity building

Dicle University seeks European research, technology and training partners to strengthen livestock farmers' resilience through green and digital innovation, applied research and vocational capacity building.

2027 CLUSTER 6 TOPIC • TARGET CALL

HORIZON-CL6-2027-03-GOVERNANCE-01

Strengthening farmers' resilience in coping with risks and crises

WHY DICLE UNIVERSITY

Dicle University combines expertise in animal nutrition, sustainable livestock systems, precision farming and climate adaptation with experience coordinating international green and digital education projects, including GLISTEN, DIGREEN-LA and INTEGREEN.

WHAT WE CAN CONTRIBUTE

- Livestock research
  Low-emission feeding, resource efficiency, animal welfare and climate resilience.
- Digital innovation
  Precision livestock monitoring, AI-assisted decisions and farm data.
- Living labs & demonstrations
  Participatory farm trials, farmer engagement and validation.
- Green VET capacity building
  Training modules, micro-credentials and train-the-trainer approaches.

PARTNERS WE ARE SEEKING

- Research institutions
  Livestock science, climate adaptation, risk and agricultural economics.
- Technology partners
  AI, IoT, precision livestock tools and decision-support SMEs.
- Farm & VET networks
  Farmer associations, advisers, training providers and living labs.
- Experienced coordinators
  Horizon Europe proposal leaders and multi-actor consortia.

COLLABORATION GOAL

Co-develop and validate practical livestock risk-management solutions; translate research into accessible green and digital skills for farmers, advisers and VET trainers; and support wider adoption across European farming systems.

Let us explore a Horizon Europe consortium together.
